The Chapel

The High Alpine Chapel is located on the grounds of Boehm's Candies, in Issaquah, WA. The chapel is an excellent choice for your small intimate wedding, memorial service or baptism. The chapel seats 48. The founder of Boehm's Candies, Julius Boehm, built the chapel in the memory of fallen mountain Climbers. It was completed in 1981. It is a replica of a 12th century chapel located in Ilse Maria, Switzerland. Our chapel nestled in a private park like setting.

Adjacent to the chapel is the log cabin, included in the rental. The amiable cabin is used as the brides dressing area, or a place to sit to gather your thoughts prior to your event. It features a sitting area and bathroom.

The Gazebo

A charming gazebo located just steps from the chapel doors is available for your function, with an additional charge. It is a perfect place to toast the bride and groom. The gazebo is equipped with a center light and has 3 outlets for additional lighting, or a music player to play soft music. Two benches sit inside the gazebo and three benches are located on the outside.

Included in the rental of the gazebo is a table to be used for placing the cake, refreshments or hors d'oeuvres on.
